After an unbelievable rainout in February, The ALSRI Tour finally kicked off the 2001 season at The Cascades Golf Course. Nick Castro emerged from a fine group of golfers to take the title as Club Champion. Castro, who qualified for the Tournament of Champions by winning the "C" Flight in the season ending tournament at Sierra Lakes, once again played a steady round at the tough Cascades Golf Course.

As usual all of the flights were hotly contested. Jerry Chang outlasted Bob Watson to win the "A" Flight. Al Fujii dominated the "B" Flight over Don Stephens and Don Odama just clipped eventual club Champion Nick Castro to take the "C" Flight. The Ladies Flight winner was Linda Donato and the Guest Flight winner was Tom Graef.

The winners are:

"A" Flight
1st Place Jerry Chang
2nd Place Bob Watson Jr

3rd Place Dennis Murakami

"B" Flight
1st Place Al Fujii
2nd Place Don Stephens
3rd Place Stephen Klotz

"C" Flight
1st Place Don Odama
2nd Place Nick Castro
3rd Place Tim Forrest

Ladies Flight
Linda Donato

Guest Flight
1st Place Tom Graef

Bogey's BylinesBy Bryan Inoue

On Friday, September 22, 2000 about 70 golfers plus many non-golfers enjoyed a great day at the park. Griffith Park that is, on the Wilson golf course. That was the date and location of the first Tri-Org Golf Tournament. AIM (Association for the Improvement of Minorities), APO (Asian Pacific Organization), and HIRE (Hispanic Internal Revenue Employees) joined together to host this wonderful event. AIM President, Stephanie Smith; APO Chairperson, Amy Hui; and past HIRE President, Sandy Rodriguez were on hand registering participants, distributing goodie bags and having fun talking with everyone. Also volunteering to do all the above plus taking, developing and distributing photographs were Tonya Mitchell, Ben Reese and Shirley Mao. We were very fortunate to have Christopher Pak and Asia America Online (www.

A2OL.com) as our title sponsor. A special recognition award was presented to A2OL for their support. We had many other supporters providing various gifts and prizes. They are AIM, Borg Produce, Charlie Hong, Curad, HIRE, Kings Hawaiian Bakery and Restaurant, La Clarte Spa & Salon, Las Vegas Discount Golf and Tennis,

Challenge Corner

The Survivor Series got off to a rather cold and wet start. The weather did not dampen the resolve of eight pairs of golfers who succeeded in advancing to the second round of play. Here are the overall results of the 1st round:

Qualifiers:

Jerry / Alex—145	Rick / Vern—162
Wayne / Bob—151	Chris / James—161
Bernard / Stan—152	Howard / Bryan—160
Larry / Tim—153	Jim / Roger—155

Non Qualifiers:

Jimmy / Richer—163
David / Richard—163
Jim / Stan—163
Larry / James—163
Dennis / Victor—163
Al / Archie—164
Stephen / George—168
Chuck / Lou—169
Ron / Bob—173
Nick / Daylan—173

The 2nd round match-ups will be based on a rating using the 1st round scores as a ranking system. The second round will be played at Los Serranos South course on May 4th. Results will be in the next newsletter.

Remember to forward results of any upcoming challenges to Larry Taylor. He can be reached at LJT356@aol.com.

Having completed the first round of the Survivor Challenge we are now down to 8 teams. I thought I'd give my evaluation of the remaining teams with a movie theme with the Oscars having recently being dispensed.

Match Number 1

Jerry Chang and Alex Wong (Nicknames: Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon)

Clearly the favorites. Dangerous team due to their higher handicaps and their abilities to string 3 or 4 straight pars with occasional birdies. The next format of partner best ball may be their best format.

Versus

Rick Sackett and Vern Miller (The Sunshine Boys)

Two of the nicest guys you'll ever meet and the oldest combined team of the 8. This team should not be overlooked however, since Vern has finished first in his division a number of times and the better ball format should prove to be well suited to Rick.

Match Number 2

Wayne Nakama and Bob Henderson (The Odd Couple)

No I'm not hinting that one is neat and the other is a slob. I call them the Odd Couple because I never imagined these two pairing up. However, with Wayne keeping the ship steady, Bob can bring in the occasional net birdie/eagle now and then and combine to shoot a low score.

Versus

Chris Olson and James Rose (Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid)

Two of the steadier participants. They should have no problem doing well under the next format but whether they can overcome a lack of handicap remains to be seen. If they get past the next round they'll be favorites to go all the way.

Match Number 3

Tim Baldwin and Larry Taylor (Tango and Cash)

If anyone actually saw the Kurt Russell and Sylvester Stallone movie they may remember that the two heroes talked trash more to each other than the bad guys. but still managed to win in the end. The same applies to Mr. Baldwin and Mr. Taylor. They may badmouth each other during the round but their length should prove to be an advantage on the longer Los Serranos South course.

Versus

Jim Nelson and Roger Law (The Firm)

These two barristers may prove to be surprise finalists. Jim Nelson is a proven winner having recently won the Sierra Lakes Tournament. Roger Law has also won the guest flight before so these two may prove to be the "sleeper" of the tournament. A lack of distance may prove to be a disadvantage on the longer South course though.

Match Number 4

Bernard Penafuerte and Stan Gin (The Blues Brothers)

Like Jake and Elwood, Stan and Bernard are on a mission. Although they have not won any tournaments lately they are both tested competitors when it comes to match play and the format will probably prove very favorable to their steady down the middle games. Both build their own golf clubs and technology may prove to be a deciding factor down the road.

Versus

Bryan Inoue and Howard Wu (The Falcon and the Snowman)

These two have the "chemistry" to be able to play well together. Much like the team of Bob Henderson and Wayne Nakama, these two will prove very tough to beat if their games are on and their heads are on right.

Inside ALSRI.....Golfnut

(The writings of Golfnut do not reflect the opinions of the editor or the ALSRI Golf Club)

I understand the first round of the Survivors Series teed off recently and a few golfers got 'kicked off the island.' Everyone who didn't make it to the second round can now try out for "The Weak Link" or is that the weak links????.... Congratulations to Nick Castro for winning the club championship. I'm sure the pride of "Team Mouse Ears" will be everyone's target for the next year. Enjoy your trophy Nick, It's gonna cost you a lot of lunches....Victor Vannukul should be ready for lunch after his recent vacation to Thailand. I hear that he played golf nonstop sharpening his game for the guys playing in the Los Serranos tournament....The golfers are getting ready for the now annual trip to Monterrey at the end of this month. Currently there are 14 golfer preparing to drive up North, golf the week away (and to eat Big Dawgs cookies.) Everyone's jockeying to be in his foursome. Can't blame 'em,

Big Dawg makes some goooood cookies.....The ALSRI Golf Club would like to welcome our newest member, DJ Bennett. Hey DJ, go easy on the boys and their fragile egos.....Due to scheduling problems beyond the clubs control, our next tournament scheduled for June 8th at River Ridge has been cancelled. To replace that date, the club has rescheduled for Monday June 11th at Oak Valley shotgun tournament will include a barbeque lunch and free range balls. You won't want to miss this event..... Thanks to our webmasters, Earl Estrada and George Murphy, we now have a Bulletin Board and a new chat room available online. Now if we could just get it to work! We were scheduled to try it before our last tournament at The Cascade, but the server went

Bryan Inoue, Jimmy Jung, and Ben Ahn at the Tri-Org Tournament

Golf Club. The members will find that Oak Valley is one of the most beautiful golf courses that they have never heard of. The course is located in Beaumont, right across the freeway from the new PGA courses at Oak Valley. The cost of the afternoon down the night before. Even Golfnut was going to show up and smack talk. Until then, join us on the AOL chat room on Thursday night.....See you at Los Serranos on Friday morning. Please be on time..!!!!

Molloy and Inoue, Paul Chang, Putt for Dough, and Wilson Sporting Goods. Prizes and gifts included a beginner golf club set, True Line putter, Back Therapist massager, Extreme scooter, dinner for 2 at Kings Hawaiian Restaurant, Wilson SmartCore golf balls, 20% discount coupons and one free haircut/ pedicure at LaClarte Spa & Salon, putter/wedge set, golf ball/divot tool set, magazine subscriptions, mini highlighters, Curad bandages, various snacks, and various golf tools.

Speaking of prizes, this year's trophies were laser etched glass beer mugs. The Tri-Org Golf Tournament would not have been a success without the participation of everyone who came to play. So AIM, APO and HIRE would like to express their appreciation to all the participants. The next Tri-Org Golf Tournament will be held in mid-July 2001 at the Harding Golf course in Griffith Park. We hope you will join us.
