Richer "POCWA" Dubois secures 2004 Tournament of Champion Trophy @ Aliso!!!

El Monte POD Super-Senior, Richer Dubois, surprises everyone including himself @ Aliso Viejo Tournament with a gross 82 and posted a NET 56 and won his first Tournament of Champions by 6 strokes over his fellow El Monte teammate, Richard Brawley who carded a net 62 at the short but tricky, Aliso Viejo course. His NET 56 was the lowest NET score in the history of ALSRI Golf Club which prompt Victor to call Richer, "The Lord of the Sandbaggers".

While most of the players at Aliso Viejo were bemused by the tricky greens of Aliso Viejo. Richer had no problems reading Aliso's tricky greens. So hide your wallet, next time you see Richer!

Spots at our 2nd IRS & Friends West Coast Tournament @ Primm Valley Golf Course near Las Vegas are filling pretty fast according to Victor Vannukul, Primm Event Coordinator. If you plan to play this tournament, please either sign-up online or mail the check to Victor as soon as possible. We plan to limit the field to 138 players (Full SHOTGUN on both courses). We're in the process of organizing "Get Together Cocktail Reception Party" on Thursday evening after the golf clinic at Primm Valley Clubhouse. In addition, Victor is also working on the first ALSRI No Limit Texas Hold'em Poker Tournament (Moderate Entry Fee). The sign-up dateline for Primm Tournament is May 24, 2004!

Again, Victor secured us a fantastic tournament rate for our group this year. We added a double occupancy rate and a Las Vegas resident rate (Proof of Clark County Residents) to the package this year. Last year foods at the banquet was fantastic. Both Primm courses were in fabulous conditions. The services at the course were impeccable! We got excellent feedbacks from last year players and made a few improvements based on the suggestions gave to us.

I'm looking forward to see all of you at Primm in June.

Golfnuts

Congratulations to Richer Dubois, the 2004 ALSRI club champion. Richer blistered the Valley/Ridge courses at the beautiful Aliso Viejo golf course with a net score of 56. (Also a new ALSRI record). For those members not able to play at Aliso Viejo, Golfnut would like to provide you with a "fly on the wall" recap of the tournament....John Greenwood and Tim Forrest on the putting green before the start of the tournament, "We played here earlier in the week. Just make sure you don't leave the ball short on the green!" Sorry guys, Golfnut saw you balls rolling off the front of the greens at least three times.... Howard Wu on the course, "All you got to do is hit irons off the tee on this course. Just manage your game and it will be o.k." Good strategy Howard, especially after Golfnut saw you finally hit your driver on #18. That water was just too close for you.... George Nichols on the 15th Green, "hey, I'm only 4 or 5 shots over par. Maybe I'll have a trophy case built for the hardware I'm going to be taking home with me tonight!" Golfnut thinks George is probably going to become a board member next year and propose new legislation to change the way the ALSRI championship round is played....Gaye Thomson, after hitting a monster drive off the tee, "that can't be my ball, it's just not far enough, but Tim Baldwin said it's my ball so I'll just hit it anyway!" Dear Gaye: Golfnut's rule of Golf is - never listen to what Tim says while on the golf course. While he has been known to make a few intelligent statements off the course, Golf is relaxation to Tim, which means he is having fun. Intelligent questions are best asked of someone else....And finally, Richer Dubois on the driving range, "Damn, I can't seem to hit a ball today to save my life." Golfnut only wonders if he had his toes painted for the big day....The ALSRI Cup has started. The first round was played March 26th at Hansen Dam golf course. Results of the first round: Best Team: El Monte. Team captain Victor Vannukul had his boys dressed for success for the first round action. The El Monte team stunned the other teams with coordinating team shirts and then did the same to the course. El Monte is tied for the lead even though they played without the teams two best players. The other teams playing don't get mentioned until they update their fashions. The second round matches are May 14th at Aliso Viejo golf course hosted by the Southern California team.... Hey Dennis Murakami, a certain player told Golfnut that he misses you buying him a beer after every round and he hopes you start playing again soon!...Please welcome these following golfers to ALSRI family, Iris Biboso, John Kirsling, William Smith, Mitchell Davis, Jason Wallace, Ed Chavez, Craig Weaver, John Pointer and Don Toda. James "Big Dawg" Rhodes and Byron Higa also re-joined ALSRI after one year hiatus from ALSRI! According to our membership director, Howard "Professor" Wu, our club membership just reached 128!
