Norman Light of Fresno Campus captures 1st Place Low Gross Award at our 2004 Primm Valley IRS & Friends Tournament

Norman Light after accepting First Place Low Gross Trophy & Prize from George "Big Daddy" Murphy, ALSRI Treasurer

Norman Light, EITC Specialist from Fresno Campus won 2nd Annual IRS & Friends Tournament Low Gross with the gross score of 151. Like most participants, Norman, a 5.5 handicapper, struggles on the difficult layout of the Desert Course on the first day. But he managed to shoot even par (72) on the second day of the tournament (Lakes Course) and won Low Gross Honor for the Employee Flight by 19 strokes over Jackson Kohagura, a Las Vegas Resident and a IRS Retiree. Last year Low Gross Champ, Paul Decena, of San Jose POD, had family obligation and couldn't come to Primm this year to defend his title he won in an inaugural IRS& Friends West Coast Tournament last year.

Other winners of the current & retired IRS Employees are:

A Flight (Index of 0-15):

- 1st Place: Harvey Leong
- 2nd Place: Jackson Kohagura
- 3rd Place: Bob Campanone

B Flight (Index of 16-21):

- 1st Place: Tim Baldwin
- 2nd Place: Cecil Lester
- 3rd Place: Stan Shost

C Flight (Index of 22-27):

- 1st Place: Ron Nestor
- 2nd Place: James Rhodes
- 3rd Place: Tim Forrest

D Flight (Index 28 and above):

Message from the President

"The 2004 IRS and Friends West Coast Golf Tournament Was Another Success!"

The ALSRI Golf Club is proud to have been the host for the second annual IRS and Friends West Coast Golf Tournament in Primm, Nevada. I would like to extend a special thanks to Victor Vannukul, tournament director, for all of his time and dedication in putting on this tournament.

Throughout this newsletter you will find articles and pictures of the events that took place at Primm, as well as the results of the tournament.

We have already begun planning our tournament for next year. The dates for next year's tournament are June 24 - June 25, 2005.

We hope that those of you who were able to participate will join us again next year, and that those of you who were unable to participate will be able to join us for the fun next time around!!

Golfnuts

Well folks, I guess it's time for ALSRI to start a "Super Senior/Champions Tour" Flight in addition to the A-D flights currently in place. Jerry Chang will be the newest addition to the flight after recently announcing his retirement from the Service. Congratulations Jerry....Jerry's management position was taken by ALSRI member Dennis Murakami and, once again, congratulations are in order. Hey Dennis, don't think we're going to take it easy on you now that you are a manager. By the way, when are you taking us out to lunch? Golfnut takes special pleasure in attending and reporting on the ALSRI Cup matches that are now in progress. I'm not big on the scores or competition but I'm pleased to report that the El Monte team still leads the competition as "Best Dressed Team". (P.S. So California is currently in 1st Place going into the third match on July 9th followed closely by the teams from Downtown 2. ALSRI members Victor Vannukul and Tim Baldwin recently participated in the grand inaugural of the "Tee Pod" system as invited guest of Landmark Golf Course, former home of the Skins Game. The system, designed to keep score, order meals, send for emergency, or have friends see your score via internet while you are still on the course, operates from kiosks located at each tee box. While not overly impressed with the system, Victor indicated that the food and golf was very good.... Archie "The Instigator" Nakaoka has been up to his old tricks lately. Golfnut was informed that Archie was talking plenty of smack before the recent Primm tournament, at least until his game blew up and he had to come up with a multitude of reasons to call off the bets that he had made. Hey Archie, walk the walk before you talk the talk....Speaking of Primm, the 2nd Annual IRS and Friends tournament at Primm Valley was a very, very, special event. Golfnut was, of course, sneaking around the hotel and golf course trying to dig up the juicy tidbits necessary to include in his article. The President's reception on Thursday was a hit. Held in the tournament suite, there was plenty of food and drinks to satisfy everyone while mingling with the participants from around the country that attended the tournament. Although everyone had a good time, Golfnut would like to know why Victor Vannukul was so tired after spending the night in the tournament suite with former ALSRI President Ben Novicki, who was in attendance as a participant. Friday morning's tournament play started on the Desert Course. The look on everyone's faces told the story returning to the clubhouse. That is a brutal course! Saturday morning's play started on the Lakes Course. What a difference. I'm not sure whether the smiles were for the easier course or that competition is over. Saturday nights Award banquet and buffet was excellent. Heck, Golfnut even hit a sizable jackpot on one of the slot machines at Whiskey Petes, but please don't tell my wife because she'll want half of it....The next ALSRI tournament is July 9th at the Griffith Park-Harding Course. This tournament is in conjunction with the HIRE convention and will also feature ALSRI Cup competition. Hope to see you there. Congratulation to Brian Klotz, our first junior member and son of our current President, Steven Klotz, who just learned last month that he would be a father for the first time later this year. Brian, I don't think we would see you on the course for a while now that you have the added responsibility. Brian Got a chance to post for picture with Jack Nicklaus at Toshiba Senior Classic Event early this year.

Do you feel lucky today, Pig?...Inspector Gin

The game of golf and hunting share a few similarities. They both require adequate equipments, discipline, proper training, and the ability to accurately shape your shots to get the desired results...Most of you probably don't know about one of our Officers, Stan Gin, who has an affection for hunting and fishing, as well as golf. His golf game has gone astray somewhat in the past few years and we have not seen him much on the links lately but Stan's passion for hunting has not diminished. He spent lots of time honing his hunting skills and made several hunting tips with his brother. Early this year, Stan fulfilled one of his hunting dreams by making a trip to a private wild boar ranch in Central California where he successfully bagged a large female pig (Sow) weighing over 175 pounds. This was quite an accomplishment. Stan offered some of his bagged meat to feed the officers at a BBQ during a meeting at Mike Morikawa's place after the Aliso Viejo tournament...But that's not what Golfnut wants you to know...Stan mistakenly shared his wild-boar hunting experiences with some of his friends, where Golfnuts managed to scoop the inside story behind Stan's wild boar hunting trip...Stan paid $450 for this private hunting trip where his guide took him to the private hunting field to search for his prized sow. After spending hours looking for the female pig in the tough hilly terrains, the guide spotted this large female pig about 100 feet away running on the hill above the spot where Stan and his hunting guide were standing. The guide told Stan that this may be the only chance Stan has to shoot this pig. Despite difficult conditions and let alone moving target, using his long range scope and high power rifle, Stan successfully shot that sow. That pig's squealed loudly throughout the canyons surrounding the area. However, for reasons unknown at the time, that sow didn't go down, even though Stan knew that his bullet did hit that pig. She took off running away from Stan toward the top of the hills. That sow fell over the hills into the canyons 60 feet below. Stan's guide releases two bloodhounds to chase after the pig. After a few minutes, Stan and his guide heard a fighting noise in the grassy marsh a couple hundred feet away where the dogs have cornered the injured pig.

However, they couldn't see either the pig or the bloodhounds because of the high grass surrounding the area where the pig was cornered. Knowing that an injured pig was more dangerous than a healthy one, the guide told Stan to be cautious, and get ready to end that pig's ordeal. Instead of using his rifle, to Stan's surprise, his guide handed him a .44 Magnum revolver famously known by the weapon of choice of Dirty Harry ("SFO Inspector Callahan"). Stan and his guide walked through the deep grass and finally located the bloody and tired sow and put an end to her misery. Golfnut believes that this conversation took place by Stan before firing the .44 Magnum bullet into the pig's head..."Do you feel lucky today, Pig!". After taking a picture with his prized pig, Stan and his guide had to drag that pig up the hill since his guide couldn't bring down his jeep to the area where the pig was laid to rest. The guide's observation of the felled pig found that the main reason that pig didn't go down after Stan's initial shot was because Stan's bullet penetrated that pig from the rear end instead of the head as Stan originally thought. Poor Pig! Stan, stick to golf next time, at least your shank shot won't hurt anybody!

Price of private hunting trip, $450

Cost of Butcher to trim the bagged pig meat, $85

Opportunity to shoot a wild pig (In the behind), Priceless!

On the last note, V2 wants Golfnuts to thanks these following persons who made significant contribution to the success of our 2nd Annual IRS & Friends West Coast Tournament at Primm Valley last month. Julie Wiskus, Manager of Golfsmith in Pasadena who, as usual, gave us a good deal on quality golf products presented to Primm Winners. Jack Froelich of Froelich's Trophies who made all the Primm trophies for us at discount price (Jack, former business of Bob Sackett, played in our tournaments once or twice a year). Howard Robbins PGA, Mike Germany PGA and Charles PGA of Primm Valley Golf Course, for their utmost professionalism. We couldn't run such a smooth tournament without them! And last, but not least, Tom Delaney, Golf Sales Manager of Primm Valley Resort, who went backward to ascertain that everyone who participated in our event are having a great experiences at Primm. Tom's last price concession gives us additional financial resource for us to purchase a Primm Logo Towel for all participants. Please join us to thanks these individuals who help us make our 2nd IRS & Friends West Coast Tournament a successful one!

24/7 is a non profit organization, helping young baseball and softball players compete at higher level. Our 14 years and under baseball team is looking for your help. We are in the summer season and are looking for help with equipment costs, tournament fees and travel costs. Currently, there is a big fund raising event with the goal of raising enough money to replace the uniforms that the boys are growing out of, purchase new bats and equipment for the entire team. To raise money for these critical and needed equipments, the organizers are hosting a golf tournament at Sierra Lakes golf course on Saturday, August 7th, shotgun start at 7 A.M. We are asking you to donate what you can to help this tournament. We will have raffles for prizes, auctions other fun venues. To participate in this golf tournament, please send your $105 check payable to 24/7 organization to coach Robert Oaks at 4810 Brook Street, Montclair, CA 91763. Please email George Nichols at gnichols@altrionet.com for the registration form. Any questions, please call coach Robert Oaks at 909-377-7234. I would like to extend my thanks to you in advance for your time, support and generosity.
