As you walk down the fairway of life you must smell the rose, for you only get to play one round!

August saw the ALSRI Tour 2000 stop at that delightful little muni course called Lakewood. Mild weather and a relatively easy layout combined to produced some low scores for the day. George Rey topped the 'C' Flight with a net 56! Chris Olson topped the 'A' Flight with a net 68 and Vern Miller topped the 'B' Flight with a net 70. In somewhat of a surprise, Linda Donato did not participate to claim her usual supply of balls for winning the Ladies Flight. Also, Dan McKenna topped the Guest Flight.

The winners are:

2nd Place Wayne Nakama
3rd Place Howard Wu

Challenge Corner

There was plenty of golf news to report in the last few months. The ALSRI club was once again very prominent around the local golf links.

Congratulations to the members of the Los Angeles team with their victory in the ALSRI Cup Team Competition which recently concluded at the Los Serranos South course. The L.A. Team finished 1st with a combined total of 864 followed by El Monte with 873 and Glendale with 881.

The 2000 SCGA Affiliate League Competition had the ALSRI golf club in competition with 3 other clubs (Gold Coast, Thompson Industrial, LA Singles) in the first round of play, with the top 2 teams going to a playoff shot gun at the SCGA Members Course in Rancho California on November 9th.

ALSRI finished in last place only 3 pts shy of a playoff spot at 21 points (we needed 24). We had one First place finish (7pts), One Second (5pts), a tie for Second (4pts), a third (3pts), and two last place (1pt each).

13 club members participated and should be thanked for their effort. The members are: Jimmy Henson, Howard Wu, Steve Klotz, Lou Pacho, Dennis Murakami, George Murphy, Rick Sackett, Don Stephens, Larry Taylor, Victor Vannukul, Bob Watson, Wayne Nakama, Alex Wong.

The first Tri-Org Tournament was held September 22nd at the Griffith Park-Wilson course. The tournament, a joint effort of AIM-IRS, APO, and HIRE was a success. Approximately 80 golfers participated in this worthwhile venture. Results of the tournament will be reported at a later date.

Remember to forward results of any upcoming challenges to Larry Taylor. He can be reached at LJT356@aol.com.

I'm going to play at Oak Valley on Monday and while that, for me, is an imposing thought, I wondered what would happen if I could make or change some of the Rules of Golf. (Please don't tell Victor Vannukul about this article.) I think the following changes would be in order:

Water hazards will now fall under the "Ball Wash" section of the rules. Players have the option of removing their balls from said hazards, informing playing partners that you meant to do that, and continuing play as if the unfortunate shot never happened. Drop the ball in the nearest dry, good lie closest to the pin. Oh, and deduct a stroke to help you cope with the impending dry-cleaning bill for your wet trousers.

You are entitled to a free drop if your ball lands in "Ground Under Repair."

The definition of "Ground Under Repair" is expanded to include any area that isn't the fairway.

The definition of "Water Hazard" is expanded to include anyone who downs too many beers on the course without visiting the john at the turn.

The definition of "Nearest Point of Relief" is changed to be the spot where the ball stops rolling after another player in your group yells, "Hey, stop kicking your ball!"

The definition of "Out of Bounds" is changed from "an area out of play" to "a state of mind."

To help calculate scores more efficiently, count any strokes after the eighth stroke in reverse order. Thus, a 10 is recorded as a 6. This is for clarity's sake, of course.

If you think you lost a ball and play a provisional ball and then find the original ball after shanking your second shot with the provisional ball, you may play the original ball without penalty even if the original ball had somehow made it into your pocket and mysteriously reappeared in the middle of the fairway. Oh, and deduct a stroke for all the hassle.

Players weighing more than 250 pounds shall now fit into the definition of "Immovable Obstructions."

A ball that lands on the wrong putting green may not be played, unless the putt on the wrong green is sinkable.

A player is automatically disqualified if he/she laughs at a handicap being "short arms." Exception: anyone kissing up to his/her boss.

Introducing firearms to a "Slow Play" dispute is heavily frowned upon. Perfectly understandable, but heavily frowned upon.

Declaring "Course Unplayable" after wagers have been made is heavily frowned upon. Perfectly understandable, but heavily frowned upon.

Handicap Notes.....Archie Nakaoka

If you played two nine hole courses in a row, even if you played them on different days, you need to post a score. Simply combine the two nine hole totals into an 18 hole score. If, however, you squeezed a regulation 18 hole round in between the two nine hole rounds, then you would not record the two nines.

Remember, you are required to post your score after each round you play to ensure an accurate handicap index.

Handicap Points of Interest

- Average club index is 19.1
- Most improved golfer for the month of October is Michael Takahashi from 11.5 to 10.2

- Best improvement for their index in the last 12 months is James Nelson from 19.7 to 14.2

If you cannot record your score due to the lack of computers or the pro shop closing, you can contact Archie at (213) 576-3844 to have him input your score(s). Keep your score cards so he can verify the score, slope, and course ratings.
