As we get closer to the end of our 15th year, I would like to remind our membership of the dedication and time that your board puts in to make this club a success, outside of what you see the day of the tournament. Of course on the day of the tournament, the board works as a team to ensure that everything runs as smoothly as possible so you can enjoy your day on the course.

In between tournaments, and on a bi-monthly basis, board meetings are held, handicaps are updated with the SCGA, preparation for the next tournament begins, newsletters are published, the website is updated, our bank account and books are updated, and membership changes are reported to the SCGA. Preparations for the next Primm tournament begins immediately after the close of the previous Primm tournament and continues all year.

Most of what the board does is, and should, be transparent to you the member. And, that is the true measure of success for any volunteer organization - to allow its members to enjoy the reason for the organization with as few problems as possible.

One place where you can help us is in the area of timely tournament sign-ups on our website at www.alsri.com and payment of your fees either through Paypal on the website, or by mailing a check to our tournament chairman in a timely fashion. Although we will allow some exceptions and take payment the date of the tournament, this causes extra work for the board in many ways.

In addition, if you need to cancel, you must notify us as soon as possible. THE CANCELLATION POLICY OF THE BOARD IS: ONCE YOU HAVE SIGNED UP FOR A TOURNAMENT YOU ARE FINANCIALLY OBLIGATED TO PAY THE TOURNAMENT FEES. IF YOU NEED TO CANCEL, ANY MITIGATING CIRCUMSTANCES WILL BE CONSIDERED BY THE BOARD, AND THE BOARD WILL MAKE EVERY ATTEMPT TO MINIMIZE THE FINANCIAL COST TO YOU (SUCH AS FINDING ANOTHER PLAYER). HOWEVER, ANY AND ALL FEES MAY STILL BE DUE FROM YOU.

Thanks for your cooperation in this matter, and thanks for being a member of this club. It's been 15 great years, and we look forward to many more!
